Day 01 Calama – San Pedro de Atacama

Arrival at the Calama airport and the driest desert in the world. Reception and transfer at the Calama airport to San Pedro de Atacama. Visit to the Valley of the Moon. On the road that connects San Pedro with Calama, we will stop to photograph the Cordillera de la Sal from the viewpoint. In the Valley of the Moon, we will visit the salt statues called "Las Tres Mariás", next to the salt mine, the salt caverns and we will watch the sunset over a huge sand dune.

Overnight at Hotel in San Pedro de Atacama.

Day 02 San Pedro de Atacama – Salar de Atacama and Altiplanic Lagoons

Breakfast. Departure in the morning and we will visit the great Salar de Atacama in the Los Flamencos National Reserve where we can enjoy its immensity surrounded by its fauna in the Chaxa Lagoon and surroundings among the flamingos that with their beauty prove to be the main attraction of the salt flat. Then we will take the road to the highlands to visit the Miscanti and Miñiques lagoons at 4,200 meters above sea level at the base of the Andes mountain range volcanoes, through its trails we will delight ourselves with the nature of a landscape of contrasts. Then we will enjoy lunch in the town of Socaire, a town that stands out for its traditional cuisine. Finally before returning we will visit the town of Toconao, its bell tower and church of San Lucas, both national monuments since 1951.

Day 03 San Pedro de Atacama - Geisers del Tatio -Calama

Departure very early in the morning to the Geisers del Tatio, the highest geothermal field in the world. Located in the Andes Mountains at 4,321 meters above sea level, the busiest time is between 6:30 a.m. and 9:00 a.m. when atmospheric pressure generates huge columns of steam that rise from the ground, creating a contrast between the mountain range and the intense blue of the sky. On the way back, Machuca, an Atacameño town dedicated to grazing, will show us its bofedal, ducks and Andean gulls. ending at approximately 12:30 p.m.
