Experience the best of Santiago's culture with a tour of Barrio Italia and Cerro San Cristobal. Barrio Italia is a vibrant and bustling barrio located in the Providencia district of Santiago, Chile.

Its cobblestone streets and colorful buildings give it a unique charm.

Visitors to Barrio Italia can explore the area's many cafes and restaurants, sample the local cuisine and pick up souvenirs. Cerro San Cristobal is a hill in the middle of Santiago with a summit of 880 meters. The hill is home to a beautiful park, which offers stunning views of the city and the Andes.

Visitors can take a cable car up to the summit, or hike up the winding paths that snake up the hill. At the top, visitors can explore the iconic statue of the Virgin Mary, and chapel. This tour is the perfect way to get to know the city and its history.
