10:15AM Departure from your Hotel to Santa Rita vineyard, is a fascinating chance to experience Chile's cultural heritage and winemaking traditions, just 45 minutes outside Santiago.

Located in the foothills of Alto Jahuel, Buin, the winery is sited in an idyllic natural setting, a meeting point for winemaking traditions, Chilean history, culture, and cuisine. Whether you are an experienced connoisseur or more of a beginner, our tours will help you learn about and enjoy the fascinating world of winemaking. When you visit Santa Rita, you will find the roots of Chilean wine: you will see how it is made, enjoy a tasting session, and experience the winery's cultural heritage in Alto Jahuel. The lunch will be at the Restaurante Doña Paula, currently part of the Historic Monument, was named in honor of Doña Paula Jaraquemada, who sheltered 120 patriots in the fight for Chile's independence, over two hundred years ago. The setting is also idyllic, with views out over the vineyards and a broad passageway leading to the courtyard garden.

On the ends with a superior tasting of Premium wines paired with cheeses and cookies. Highlight: Visit to the historic Bodega 1 made of "cal y canto" and the "Bodega de los 120 patriotas", a historical monument, paired tasting.

1 Gran Reserva wine, 2 Ultra Premium wines + Cheese and crackers 1 hour and 10 minutes.
